Aug 25th	If you believe that you have been victimized by employment discrimination, consider filing a discrimination charge with the EEOC and/or your state agency. In some states, filing a charge with either the EEOC or a state agency will be treated as filing with both. Speak to an employment lawyer for advice because some state statutes provide greater protection and some state agencies have more powers than the EEOC. Read the other eight tips to maximize a discrimination claim by downloading this free guide here: https://www.legalstratpub.com/free-downloads .
