If you or a loved one lived, worked, or was stationed at Camp Lejeune Military Base in North Carolina between 1953 and 1987 and have experienced severe illness or cancer, you may be entitled to considerable compensation under the Camp Lejeune Justice Act of 2022!

Those who were exposed to contaminated drinking water at Camp Lejeune can now seek restitution for the harm they have suffered. Victims include veterans who served at Camp Lejeune and family members who stayed on or near the base. Some of the diseases that victims have experienced include:

- Adult leukemia,
- Aplastic anemia,
- Bladder cancer,
- Kidney cancer,
- Liver cancer,
- Multiple myeloma,
- Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, and
- Parkinson's disease, among other conditions.

At Williams Cedar, we concentrate our practice in assisting clients who have suffered from environmental contamination, including veterans who suffered due to Agent Orange exposure. We are past fighters for the cause of helping victims injured by environmental toxins and are now ready to help Camp Lejeune contamination victims. Contact an attorney at Williams Cedar today to see if you qualify before the claim period expires!
